Supervisor Novasel recommending the Board authorize Interim Chief Administrative Officer, Larry Combs, to approve County participants seven hours of County time to perform for the traditional County department holiday choir tour on December 15th and 16th, 2015.

For 29 years, county employees have spent several weeks on their lunch hours practicing holiday songs in preparation of their 14 performances for county departments, employees, the Board of Supervisors, seniors, mental health clients, guests of Juvenile Hall, library children and MORE clients. The CAO has annually authorized 7 hours of county time to employees who participate.
