Legislation Text

File #: 07-403, Version: 1

Public Health Department recommending Resolution establishing imprest cash accounts at the interim Animal Control shelter sites located at 511 Placerville Drive in Placerville and 4211 Sunset Lane in Shingle Springs.

RECOMMENDED ACTION: Adopt Resolution 067-2007.

FUNDING: Current year cost savings.

BUDGET SUMMARY:
Total Estimated Cost		$100
Funding
Budgeted	$
New Funding	$
Savings	$100
Other	$
Total Funding Available	$100
Change To Net County Cost		$0

Fiscal Impact/Change to Net County Cost: Two cash boxes for $50 each will be funded by west slope Animal Control cost savings. There is no additional net County cost.

Reason for Recommendation: The current cash box ($50.00) at 2301 Coolwater Creek Road will be moved to the interim Animal Control facility at 415 Placerville Drive. However, two additional $50.00 cash boxes will be needed at the interim facilities at 511 Placerville Drive and 4211 Sunset Lane in Shingle Springs. These boxes will be used for receiving funds and making change for transactions related to animal licenses, adoptions, and impound fees.

Action to be taken following Board approval: Department to allocate current year funds for cash box needs; Auditor/Controller to process associated cash fund request by Department.
