PRESENTATION by the El Dorado County Employee Christmas Choir.

A holiday tradition for 20 years, El Dorado County employees have gathered on their lunch hours in late Fall to practice Christmas Carols to sing before the Board of Supervisors on one day, and perform for the public on a second day, Wednesday, December 12th, beginning with Building C at 9:30am, Building B at 10:40am, the mental health day treatment Phoenix Center at 11:10am, Senior Nutrition and Senior Day Care from 12 noon - 12:30am, Human Services at 1:00pm and finally, the county library at 2:00pm where children join in with the caroling and sometimes with the conducting.

A special thanks to conductor, Kathie Martin, who stepped in to help continue the tradition of "Singing in the Holiday Season".
