FUNDING: N/A

DISCUSSION / BACKGROUND

Every two years, local public entities operating within the county must review their conflict of interest codes and determine whether changes should be made in order to bring them up to date. Under state law, the Board of Supervisors is the “code reviewing body” and must review and approve the local public entities’ revised conflict of interest codes.

A number of local public agencies have submitted their revised and updated conflict of interest codes to the County for review and approval. These public entities are:

1. Cottonwood School
2. Clarksville Charter School

County Counsel’s Office has reviewed the updated conflict of interest codes submitted by the agencies listed above, and finds that they are in accordance with state law, and recommends that the Board approve the revised codes as submitted. The Board’s approval makes the updated codes legally effective.
