DISCUSSION / BACKGROUND

On December 7, 2021 the Board directed staff and the joint working committee on industrial hemp, comprising two members of the Community & Economic Development Advisory Committee (CEDAC) and two members of the Agricultural Commission, to 1) continue to explore if all concerns raised in regards to law enforcement and safety issues, impact to neighbors, county cost to regulate, and internal county staffing capacity can be successfully addressed in an ordinance; and 2) by the end of 2022, to bring back an ordinance for an industrial hemp pilot program or an ordinance for the permanent ban on industrial hemp.

On September 13, 2022, staff presented the work of the Industrial Hemp Joint Working Committee and recommended to the Board to pursue the Industrial Hemp Pilot Program Concept, as well as to enact a ban on the cultivation of industrial hemp due to the impending expiration of the interim moratorium on industrial hemp on December 6, 2022 (Legistar 21-1516). The Board directed staff to return to the Board as soon as possible with a Resolution of Intent (ROI), as required by Zoning Ordinance Section 130.63.020, to pursue the pilot program and to return to the Board with an Industrial Hemp Ordinance as close as possible to the December 6, 2022, moratorium expiration.

The industrial hemp pilot program would be a two-year program consisting of five or fewer producers. The ordinance lists requirements for zoning, setbacks, county licensing, application submittal, cultivation, enforcement, and abatement measures.

On September 20, 2022, the Board approved Resolution of Intention 146-2022 to amend Title 130 of the County Zoning Ordinance to enact regulations for the cultivation of industrial hemp pursuant to the Industrial Hemp Pilot Program Concept.

The Department presented the draft ordinance to the Agricultural Commission on September 29, 2022. The Commission recommended approval of the draft ordinance with modifications, as described in the attached staff report (Attachment G).

The ordinance, with additional modification, was presented at the Planning Commission Meeting Public reading on October 13, 2022. The Planning Commission recommended approval of the draft pilot program ordinance with further modifications.

The Department worked with County Counsel, Sheriff's Department, Chief Administrative Office, and Planning and Building to present the recommendations to your Board today for consideration at the second reading and final adoption hearing of this ordinance.

ALTERNATIVES

The Board could choose to not approve this amendment to the Zoning ordinance addressing the Industrial Hemp Concept Program and revert to State regulations without any County restrictions on farming industrial hemp. The Board could also direct staff to modify the ordinance or could direct staff to instead move forward with a permanent ban on industrial hemp.
