Department of Transportation recommending the Board approve the Board of Supervisors Policy G-3, Dead Animal Disposal with a new sunset review date of January 10, 2026.

FUNDING: N/A

DISCUSSION / BACKGROUND

The Board first adopted the Dead Animal Disposal Policy G-3 in 1987, to set forth rules regarding the responsibility and disposal of dead animals. On July 22, 2014 (Legistar# 14-0954, Item 4), the Board approved an Amendment to Policy G-3 which clarified department responsibility for disposing of dead animals on County roads and roadsides and enabled the termination of the Memorandum of Understanding between Transportation and Animal Services. Likewise, on December 11, 2018 (Legistar# 18-1686, Item 20), the Board approved an updated Policy G-3 outlining which Departments are responsible for dead animals throughout the County, fees that could be collected for animal disposal and other administrative changes. Policy G-3 sunset on December 11, 2022, and no changes are required except to extend the sunset date to January 10, 2026.

ALTERNATIVES

The Board could choose not to approve the modifications and direct further revisions.
