AGENDA ITEMS

3. 25-1660 Commission to review and approve an alternate November meeting location. Due to unforeseen construction at the El Dorado Hills Fire Station 85, the Commission will review and vote on an alternative location for the November 2025 meeting. The proposed options are:

- 1) Georgetown Veterans of Foreign Wars Hall, 3000 Veterans Way, Georgetown; or
- 2) Conference Room D, 330 Fair Lane, Placerville; or
- 3) Board of Supervisors Chambers, 330 Fair Lane, Placerville

Jonathan Brown, Veterans Service Officer (VSO), reported that he and Courtney Frame, Administrative Technician for the Veteran Services Office, visited the Georgetown Veterans of Foreign Wars (VFW) Hall and found the space to be sufficient. The only foreseeable issue is that El Dorado County IT would not be available to assist with technical problems. Commissioner Welch noted that parking near the VFW Hall is limited. Brown added that there is additional parking available across the street from the Hall. Commissioner Smith asked whether the District 1 meeting would be moved to December. Frame informed the Commission that El Dorado Hills Fire Station 85 would also be unavailable in December due to a Santa Charity Drive. Frame explained that the Commission is allowed to use the Georgetown VFW Hall up to three times before the location must be approved by the Board of Supervisors for regular use. Commissioner Reynolds reported that the Board of Supervisors requested the Veterans Affairs Commission (VAC) hold at least one meeting in District 4, as he had presented to the Board in August. Commissioner Welch corrected the address for the VFW Hall to 6289 Main Street, Georgetown, CA.

A motion was made by Commission Culver to hold the November Veteran Affairs Commission Meeting at the Georgetown VFW Hall; seconded by Commissioner Smith.

Yes: 5 - Commissioner Norton, Commissioner Welch, Chair Reynolds, Commissioner Culver and Vice Chair Smith

4. 25-1661 Commission to review and approve proposed dates and locations for Veteran Affairs Commission 2026 meetings.

Commissioner Reynolds asked about the location for the District 2 meeting. Frame responded that it would be held in Shingle Springs at the El Dorado County Child Support Services office. Frame also informed the Commission that if they were satisfied with the Georgetown VFW Hall, they could potentially return there for the VAC meeting scheduled on May 14th.

GUEST SPEAKER - VETERAN SPOTLIGHT

5. 25-1662 Jeanne Shuman from Jake's Journey Home to provide an overview of the organization and how they help to serve the veteran community.

Shuman reported that Jake's Journey Home was created to honor her two sons, Jake and Joey, who passed away. She started small, making blankets and tote bags with the message: "Made with love from Jake's Journey Home." Shuman delivered hundreds of these hygiene totes to homeless veterans and veteran communities. She now works with various organizations across California to support homeless veterans. In the first seven months of 2025, Shuman reported that they housed 26 individuals, conducted 7,235 field interactions, and delivered 10,647 comprehensive services. Currently, Shuman operates out of the Veterans Memorial Building (VMB) and has received grants from Endow El Dorado, the Irma D. Anderson Family Fund, and the El Dorado County Veteran Affairs Transient Occupancy Tax (VA TOT) mini-grant program. The organization has made significant progress in helping homeless veterans in El Dorado County. Shuman emphasized the community can contribute by volunteering their time and skills, donating to support outreach efforts, and advocating for policies and programs that assist voiceless, underserved, underrepresented, and unhoused individuals. She also announced a volunteer gathering scheduled for November 15th and encouraged anyone interested to participate. Additionally, Shuman reported they are working closely with the Probation and District Attorney's Offices in Sacramento, Placer, and El Dorado Counties.

- 6. 25-1663 Snowline Hospice to provide an overview of the organization and how they help to serve the veteran community.

Bill Wiedemann from Snowline Hospice shared that the organization offers several programs to support different members of the community. These include Snowline Health, Hospice Care, and an Elder Care Program designed to assist seniors while they continue living in their homes. Additionally, Snowline operates several thrift stores throughout El Dorado County. Founded in 1979, Snowline Hospice is a not-for-profit organization dedicated to providing comfort, care, and support to those in need. Wiedemann noted that they partner with the VA and other organizations to assist veterans. Volunteers often spend time with veterans, listening to their stories and offering companionship. Snowline Hospice Thrift Stores provide discounts for veterans, and if a veteran is in need of a specific item, the store will offer it free of charge. The organization also hosts an annual Stand Down event, where they distribute coats to veterans-last year, they gave away over 200 coats to those in need. Each November, Snowline holds a fundraising event for veterans, with proceeds benefiting the El Dorado County Veterans Alliance. The organization also receives an annual grant from the VA TOT to help support its veteran outreach. On average, Snowline Hospice is able to assist approximately 54 veterans in El Dorado County each year.

The combination of a peaceful, natural ranch setting and the guidance of mental health professionals, in conjunction with equine specialists, creates a highly supportive experience. Next, Brown reported that following the last Veterans Affairs Commission (VAC) meeting, he planned to visit the Georgetown Veterans of Foreign Wars (VFW) Hall. He toured the facility with Courtney Frame and they determined that the location would be suitable for hosting a future VAC meeting. Next, Brown reported that for the month of September, the Veteran Services Office recorded 125 walk-in visitors, 108 scheduled appointments, and 292 incoming phone calls. Lastly, Brown noted that Tisha Holy, VSR II, continues to provide services to clients in South Lake Tahoe.
